2019 Groundbreaker Awards
Community Leadership Awardee

Erin Loch
Upper Dublin High School

Erin is an environmental science teacher at Upper Dublin High School who has crafted an initiative to teach students about sustainable design through the lens of the Living Building Challenge in a project based learning model in collaboration with real-world professionals from the Green Building United community.